Re: Nettie Taylor, Pending OAA
Gale Nursing Home, Laconia, N.H.

Dear Mr. Barry:

This is to supplement my letter of June 30, 1958 in which I gave you my opinion as to the political subdivision responsible for the local share of OAA granted to the above-named individual. Upon reviewing this letter recently it occurred to me that I did not fully answer the inquiry contained in your letter of June 26th.

It seems clear that Mrs. Taylor abandoned her domicile in Moultonboro when she sold her home there on March 29, 1954. If Mrs. Taylor remains absent from Moultonboro for five consecutive years since that date she will lose her Moultonboro settlement even though she does not lose such settlement by receiving old age assistance. If she continues to remain in the Gale Nursing Home, Moultonboro will thus remain liable until March 29, 1959. Chargeability after that date will depend upon the circumstances as they exist then.

Very truly yours,

George T. Ray, Jr.
Assistant Attorney General
